

WHAT'S ON!

THE CITY LIBRARY CONNECTS PEOPLE TO KNOWLEDGE AND INFORMATION, CREATIVITY AND INSPIRATION. OUR PROGRAMME OF EVENTS HAS BEEN DESIGNED TO ENHANCE THE LIBRARY "EXPERIENCE" FOR ALL USERS. WE WANT TO EXCITE AND SURPRISE! WE HAVE SOME REAL TREATS OVER THE NEXT MONTH

SEPTEMBER 2009

Stand Up Poetry

Women's Night

With special guest Paekakariki Poet Helen Heath.

Wednesday 2 September, 7pm
Sound & Vision Zone, Ground Floor

Adult Learning Fair

Celebrating Adult Learners' Week / He Tangata Matauranga.

Opening with morning tea & a talk by Councillor Annette Nixon at 10.30am.

Monday 7 September, 10:30am – 4pm
World Languages, First Floor

International Literacy Day

'Adult Literacy in the 21st Century' with Dr Franco Vaccarino, Senior Lecturer, Department of Communication, Journalism & Marketing, Massey University.

Tuesday 8 September, 1 – 2pm
Sound & Vision Zone, Ground Floor

Nutellamonk

Groove to laid-back electronica, done as only Nutellamonk can do it.

Wednesday 9 September, 6pm
Sound & Vision Zone, Ground Floor

Writers Read '09

Palmerston North City Library & Massey University School of English & Media Studies present the best of New Zealand Writing in association with Te Manawa.

With award winning writer Karlo Mila.

Friday 11 September, 7pm

Te Manawa Art Gallery, 326 Main Street

Local History Week 2009

Full programme available at Branch & Central Libraries or from the website.

14 - 20 September

Fiona Kidman

In association with The Friends of the Library, an evening with this fantastic NZ writer.

Wednesday 23 September, 7pm

Fiction Zone, First Floor

A Morning With...

Rachel Johnson "From Norway with Love". Rachel researched and wrote this family history while becoming progressively blind. Come and hear her story – life, blindness and writing.

Thursday 24 September – Morning tea 10.45am, Talk 11am

Fiction Zone, First Floor

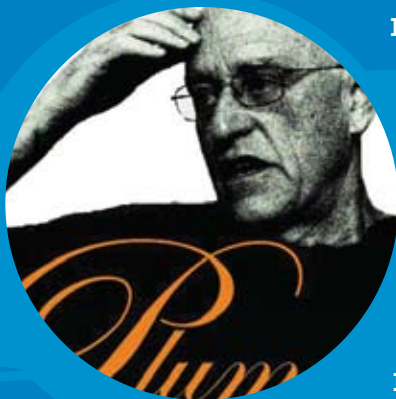

Book Launch

"A Plume of Bees: a literary biography of C.K. Stead"

By Judith Dell Panny

Sunday 27 September, 2pm

NZ & Pacific Islands Zone, Second Floor

Latin American Film Festival

The Palmerston North City Library & the Massey University School of Language Studies present this years' Latin American Film Festival showcasing award-winning films from Chile, Mexico, Uruguay, Argentina, Cuba and Peru.

28 September - 3 October

Sound & Vision Zone, Ground Floor

For more information: phone 351 4100, email promotions@pncc.govt.nz or check our website www.citylibrary.pncc.govt.nz