Nau mai, haere mai Welcome to our first Tahuna-ā-Rua Local History Month.

During September you can participate in workshops, attend lunchtime and evening presentations, write letters to past and future Palmerstonians, upload images to Manawatū Heritage, and celebrate book launches, significant anniversaries in the city, and honour the next 'Local Historian of the Year'.

Be sure to book in advance for events requiring registrations - look overleaf for the green dots.

Find out more information about the full programme on the City Library's website or scan the QR code.
